

RESOLUTION
OF
THE LEGISLATURE OF INDIANA,

RELATIVE TO

A mail route from Salem to Bloomington.

MARCH 31, 1848.

Ordered to lie on the table, and be printed.

A JOINT RESOLUTION relative to a mail route from Salem to Bloomington.

Whereas there is no direct mail route from Salem, in Washington county, in this State, by the way of Mount Carmel, through Leesville and Feltonsville, in Lawrence county, and Fairfax, to Bloomington, in Monroe county, in this State, and the public good demands such a route should be established, and that post offices should be established at the town of Fairfax, in Monroe county, and Mount Carmel, in Washington county: Therefore,

Sec. 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That our Senators in Congress be instructed, and our Representatives in Congress requested, to use their influence to procure the establishment of such mail route, and the establishment of the post offices aforesaid.

Sec. 2. Be it further resolved as aforesaid, That the governor of this State be requested to transmit a copy of this resolution to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress at as early a day as practicable.

WILLIAM A. PORTER,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

PARIS C. DUNNING,

Speaker of the Senate.

Approved February 18, 1848.

RESOLUTION

THE LEGISLATURE OF INDIANA

A mail route from Salem to Bloomington.

March 31, 1887.

Ordered to lie on the table, and be printed.

A JOINT RESOLUTION relative to a mail route from Salem to Bloomington.

Whereas there is no direct mail route from Salem in Washington county in this State, by the way of Mount Carmel through Lawrence and Tipton counties, in Lawrence county, and Feltus, to Bloomington in Madison county, in this State, and the public good demands such a route should be established, and that post offices should be established at the town of Feltus, in Boone county, and Mount Carmel, in Washington county, Indiana;

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That our Senators in Congress be instructed, and our Representatives in Congress requested, to use their influence to secure the establishment of such mail route, and the establishment of the post offices therein.

Sec. 2. That the Governor be requested to cause a copy of this resolution to be sent to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress as early as practicable.

WILLIAM A. PORTER
Speaker of the House of Representatives
FARIS C. DUNNING
